FLYWAY GALLERY EXHIBIT SPOTLIGHTS AMATEUR PHOTO CONTEST

LYNDHURST, N.J. – Entries from the New Jersey Meadowlands Commission's (NJMC) Amateur Photo Contest will be on display at the Commission's Flyway Gallery during the month of December.

"I congratulate everyone who participated in the photo contest," said Robert Ceberio, Executive Director of the NJMC. "The works we received do a great job of capturing what makes the Meadowlands such a great place to live, work and play."

The contest ran from early October to early November and featured three categories: Meadowlands environment, community and economy. The top three finishers in each category will be awarded cash prizes.

The winners for each category are below:

Environment

- 1st Place "Blowing in the Wind," Irene Docatis, Lyndhurst
- 2nd Place "Leaping Leopard Frog," John DeLuca, Rutherford
- 3rd Place "Glide," Ernie Fragetta, Lyndhurst

Community

- 1st Place "Water Park Play," Irene Docatis, Lyndhurst
- 2nd Place "Flags," Alyssa Roughgaid, Carlstadt
- 3rd Place "We Will Never Forget," Jacqueline Ferrara, Rutherford

Economy

- 1st Place "Sunrise in the Meadows," Ernie Fragetta, Lyndhurst
- 2nd Place "Progress in the Meadows," Regina Meyers, Lyndhurst
- 3rd Place "Railroad Crossing," Ernie Fragetta, Lyndhurst

The NJMC created the Flyway Gallery to help foster the cultural identity of the Meadowlands District by providing a space to showcase the talent of local artists. The gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Admission is free. For information, please call (201) 460-8300 or visit www.njmeadowlands.gov/ec.
